

14 questions HR are likely to ask you at interview

by Jane Middleton of The Middleton Partnership

1. How do you cope with the stress or pressure of work?
2. What do you find motivates you the most in a work context?
3. Do you prefer to work alone, or do you work better in groups?
4. To what extent would you be available to work overtime at short notice?
5. The job involves travelling away on business on average two or three days every month. How do you feel about that?
6. How would you deal with someone at work whose views are strongly opposed to your own views?
7. Have you ever found yourself in a team situation where people don't get on or where it becomes very political – how did you handle it?
8. Give us an example of a challenging situation you've overcome – professional or personal.
9. What do you find interesting about this job, this company?
10. Why should we hire you over others?
11. In what ways can you contribute to our company?
12. Are you interviewing elsewhere and what stage are those meetings at?
13. When would you be available to start work?
14. What are your salary expectations?

If you require further guidance on this or any other HR topic then please contact Jane Middleton at The Middleton Partnership on 07900 250782 or jane@themiddletonpartnership.com